

BluePay Adds PayPal to Its Lineup of Payment Methods

Leading payment gateway provider, BluePay, is pleased to announce the addition of PayPal to its list of payment methods.

NAPERVILLE, IL, USA, May 19, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Leading payment gateway provider, BluePay, is pleased to announce the addition of PayPal to its list of payment methods. PayPal is an E-commerce-based payments company that facilitates money transfers made over the web.

BluePay's secure Payment Gateway supports PayPal as a method of payment in the form of a Hosted Checkout Page. Merchants can choose to use standard starting and return pages, or customize them to meet the needs of their business. Having these transactions flow through BluePay's Payment Gateway helps to consolidate merchant's payments into a single platform.

"BluePay is consistently looking for solutions to make the payment acceptance process easier for our merchants," commented Tim Trench, Executive Vice President of Product at BluePay. "Adding PayPal to our list of payment methods is just another way we can accomplish this," Trench continued, "We can now report on PayPal transactions in our gateway, allowing a merchant to have all of their payment data on the BluePay system in a single platform. This will be beneficial to a merchant when it comes to providing detailed reporting and simplified reconciliation."

About BluePay: BluePay is a leading provider of technology-enabled payment processing for enterprise, small, and medium-sized businesses in the United States and Canada. Through physical POS, online, mobile interfaces, and software integration, BluePay processes business-to-consumer and business-to-business payments while providing real-time settlement, reporting, and reconciliation, along with robust security features such as tokenization and point-to-point encryption. BluePay is headquartered in Naperville, Illinois, with offices in Chicago and New York.
