DJ Paul of Three 6 Mafia, artist, KoKoe and Jrell Rainman teams up which results in a Southern/West Coast (Sound)

JACKSON, MS, UNITED STATES, June 4, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For Immediate Release

June 4, 2015 (Mississippi/Texas Native), Jrell Rainman hip hop artist, is set to release a new single entitled, 'Tennis Shoes', accompanied with West LA native, KoKoe, who currently works with DJ Paul of Three 6 Mafia. 'Tennis Shoes' is produced by Aaron Harris, who owns 74th Street Production and holds a professional and lengthy resume of working with clients: Tony Yayo, Too Short, E-40, Mick Boogie, Mickey Avalon, Dead Prez, and Dr. Dre's "Pause for Porno; Chronic 2001 album.

Jrell Rainman and KoKoe (both), exposes their flexibility, which proves to be a great blend of Southern/West Coast (sound). Their energetic and descriptive flow patterns are uniquely calculated but complimentary in relation to the topic of 'Tennis Shoes', which metaphorically means: Relationships, that are no longer worthy of upholding, due to dishonesty, un-loyalness, and betrayal. Therefore, why not start off fresh. Treat it like some, 'Tennis Shoes.'

Jrell drives the message home on his opening (first) verse- " New Chick, listen up- time is money and I work heavy. I don't have time to deal with you, if you don't have no work ethic." Therefore, its very practical to understand his viewpoint. In order for a relationship to work, both parties have to be united accordingly, finically, and mentally. What a true statement.

Contrary, to Jrell's delivery, KoKoe takes a more humorous approach but still the seriousness of his message is confirmed with confidence as he opens up the (second) verse-"Baddest Chick, I can treat her like a pair of Jays. Wear once or twice, then throw them mugs on E-bay." However, his ability to let an individual up front know her worth, can have the criteria of a 'queen' or 'knock-off' is very clever and honest.
