ST. PAUL, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, June 5, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Superior Notary Services, best known for their nationwide mobile notary and traveling signing services, announced today that the company will be donating several items to TREPAC – the Texas Association of Realtors – for their annual auction. The Garland MLS TREPAC auction will be held on Thursday, June 11, 2015 at 8:30 a.m. at the Branding Iron Restaurant at Firewheel Golf Park. The event will raise money to support TREPAC's mission to promote property ownership throughout the state of Texas.

“We are very happy to support TREPAC by making this donation to their annual auction,” said Clay Mason, president and CEO at Superior Notary Services. “They do a tremendous job in supporting local, state and national candidates who have a proven track record of protecting private property rights and preserving the dream of home ownership.” Mason then added that the Superior Notary Services donation to the TREPAC auction will consist of a Weber Grill, a variety of grilling utensils, aprons, a chef's beanie, a grill brush (for cleaning the grill) and a pair of insulated BBQ pit gloves.

Mason went further in noting that TREPAC plays a big role in supporting the vitality of the Texas real estate industry. By working with and supporting local officials TREPAC helps to identify and resolve issues that can increase the cost of buying, selling or owning real estate. Mason also noted that the TREPAC auction is a great way for Superior Notary Services to interact with brokers and sales people from the real estate industry, many of whom are Mason's clients.

Superior Notary Services is very closely associated with the Texas real estate industry through their service of providing professional and convenient notary services. Their mobile signing service removes the hassle from finding and scheduling a notary public, especially when it comes to real estate transactions. More and more real estate brokers, sales people and attorneys are turning to Superior Notary Services because they know that they can count on the professional notary signing services they want, when they want them and at any location where they are needed.

In donating a variety of BBQ items to the TREPAC auction, Superior Notary Services is supporting an organization that works tirelessly for the Texas real estate industry and all of the many people that work in and are supported by it.
