

Leading London Glass Door Supplier Offers Sliding Glass Doors from Only £420.00 Inclusive of VAT

Doors4UK, supplier of bespoke glass and wooden doors, provides a complete service from survey, fitting to after sale guarantee.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, June 5, 2015
/EINPresswire.com/ -- According to Cosmin Cojocaru, Sales Manager of Doors4UK (<http://www.doors4uk.co.uk/>) a UK company that represents Grauthoff Door Group with showroom location in Watford, Hertfordshire, offers a wide glass and wooden doors standard and bespoke for special projects.

With over 250 models of glass door design there is definitely a choice for each of our website and showroom which want more than a door, they desire a specialist doors that integrate perfectly with the interior design of the house.

Bespoke sliding glass doors London supplier, high quality glass doors Glass doors are the way to allow day light get in the spaces. Glass doors can do even more-- they change the aspect of a room in the interaction of natural light with synthetic light.

Doors4UK is a working very closed with Grauthoff for several years now and together we adhere to Grauthoff Customer Service: "Quality and service come first for Grauthoff. We want you to be satisfied! Even after you have installed the doors, aftercare by our local dealers is our standard."

The best part, according to Mr. Cojocaru, is that the sliding glass door on standard sizes won't break your budget, costing from £420.00 inclusive of VAT. The package of sliding internal glass door includes: clear glass door, Sliding system with similar stainless steel finish and square handle matching the same finish of sliding system. If you want to change the glass door finish from clear glass to frosted or Opaque glass the prices will increase slightly. For bathrooms or en-suite rooms the most popular option is to have an opaque glass, have a look here (<http://doors4uk.co.uk/uk-coverage/summer-offers/>) where you can see our latest offers for glass doors.

Sliding doors have many advantages and the best being, since it opens on the side, these do not occupy any space in the interiors of the house. Some people may think that these doors are a bit old fashioned but these do offer great spaciousness that many of the other internal doors cannot offer.

If the sliding glass door is not an option due to the visual effect you can opt for an internal sliding wooden door which offer a better privacy as well as wooden veneer finish or painted designs.

Doors4UK – Made to Measure Internal Doors (<http://www.doors4uk.co.uk/>) is representing the interest of Grauthoff Door Group from Germany which manufactures wide range of wooden and glass doors such as: Sliding glass door, sliding wooden doors, soundproof doors, residential partitions walls and bespoke wooden doors. Doors4UK can supply internal doors to interior designer and architects, self-home builders, contractors as well as private clients.
