

Datelivery Partners with CanvasPop to Bring Exciting New Gift Ideas to Wedding Season 2015

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, June 9, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Wedding season 2015 has begun, and while finding the perfect wedding gift can sometimes be a difficult task, one company has made it easy by offering a unique wedding gift alternative that now comes with an exclusive bonus gift.

Datelivery is a subscription box service that offers a unique date night in a box delivered directly to couples. Datelivery eliminates the need for couples to worry about planning a date because each month they ship a fully planned out date-in-a box to the homes of subscribers.

Anyone can purchase their soon-to-be-wed friends or family members a 1, 3 or 6 month gift subscription, and each month, the couple will receive a unique, fun box jam packed with everything needed for a date night at home.

One Datelivery subscriber, Krista S. said, "It is the most cost-effective, fun, no hassle date you will ever 'go' on. What a good investment into each other."

To add to the already exciting unique date-in-a box, Datelivery and CanvasPop recently announced a partnership that brings added value to this gift idea. A $50 CanvasPop gift card will be given to each recipient of a 3 or 6 month gift subscription. The gift card can be used towards $50 off canvas prints from CanvasPop, an excellent gift that couples can use to transform a wedding photo into a custom wall piece.

This wedding season, friends and family members of newlyweds have a new alternative gift option that is sure to please and create long lasting memories. More information is available at <https://www.datelivery.com>.
