

"Award Winning Artist Donnell Isaac Releases New Single 'Favor' Debut #4 on iTunes Chart"

Award winning, chart topping artist, known to many as Donnie C, Donnell Isaac, is back and has passionately reignited his music career stronger than ever.

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, June 11, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- After a long, eventful two years, Donnell Isaac experienced deep depression due to close family losses. Holding on to Jeremiah 29:11 to pull himself through, Donnell Isaac applied God's promises to his life and went from failure to faith and Favor. Donnell Isaac releases a powerful, upbeat new single entitled "Favor." (www.donnellisaac.com) As Donnie C, his chart topping single "Shelter From the Storm" and his soulful rendition and remake of the late Reverend Paul Jones' "I Won't Complain." These songs earned him his first win in the 2014 Chosen Voice Awards labeling him as Best New Artist. Now the world will get to know him as Donnell Isaac (formerly Donnie C). After years of set-backs, hardships, failed business decisions, bankruptcy and the loss of the matriarch of Donnell Isaac's family, his maternal grandmother, Eva Mae Charlton, he was pushed over the edge. He experienced deep dark depression that led him to almost end his life.

Thank God for "Favor," Donnell Isaac quoted. Thank God for Pastor Joseph Fleming of Third Baptist Church of Portsmouth, Virginia, who continuously prayed with Donnell Isaac through phone calls, texts and/or Facebook Messenger. Donnell recently connected back with a long time friend whom he refer to as family, Mushran "Moosh Millionz" Johnson R&B national recording artist and producer from Virginia. Moosh Millz is known for producing tracks for G Unit Recording artist Governor. Donnell felt lead to have him produce the track "Favor" stating he gets my ministry and understands my sound. When you hear the powerful new up-tempo single titled, "Favor" you will hear Donnell Isaac reference "Favor" in such a unique powerful way, with his sultry smooth delivery. His vocals are a journey in itself, catching the attention of his previous label mate the Queen of Neo Soul Gospel, National Recording Artist Cynthia Jones signs Donnell Isaac as the first artist on her new label Angel Dove Records.
