GRAND PRIZE WINNER - What Lives Inside Web Series a World Premiere
Director: Academy Award-winning VFX artist/AD/director Robert Stromberg (Maleficent)

An emotional tale of creative self-discovery is set in a richly surreal world inhabited by fantastical creatures

The web series is directed by and stars Colin Hanks, Catherine O'Hara and Oscar winner JK Simmons ("Whiplash") in a tale about a lost son played by Mr. Hanks, Taylor, and his departed father (Mr. Simmons), a famous puppeteer beloved for his creativity. Taylor discovers a lot more about his father -- and his supposed fictitious creations -- only after his dad's death. A call for auditions in the form of creature sketches went out at the time of the series announcement. Of over 6,000 sketches submitted, 144 were selected and featured in the film.
