

Sharjah free zones enhances its trade relations at World Chambers Congress in Italy

“UAE is one of the most important countries to which Italy exports in the Arab World”- Al Mazrouei

SHARJAH, SHARJAH, UAE, June 15, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SHARJAH (15/6/2015)- A high-level delegation from Hamriyah Free Zone Authority (HFZA) and Sharjah Airport International Free Zone (SAIF Zone) joined the 9th World Chambers Congress, which concluded recently (on the 11th of June) at the Lingotto Congress Centre in Torino, Italy.

SAIF Zone's booth attracted a huge number of chamber of commerce directors in addition to Vincenzo Ilotte, President of the Chamber of Commerce of Torino, Peter Mihok, Chair of the ICC World Chamber Federation.

Piero Fassino, Mayor of Torino, also visited the stand and praised SAIF Zone's initiatives and its exceptional growth in the past few years and expressed his delight in having SAIF Zone attend the event.

HFZA has over 6200 companies - 56 of which are Italian and SAIF Zone has around 6700 companies of while only 86 are Italian.

“As the only international forum for leaders from the chambers of commerce of different countries, this event is perfect to network, discuss potential business tie-ups with businessmen and get an insight into the best-practice experiences and new areas of innovation in the world of business from the distinguished leaders themselves”, said Saud Al Mazrouei, director of HFZA and SAIF Zone, on the sidelines of the 9th

World Chambers Congress.

“Our free zones’ deliver beyond expectations and we were there to showcase our top-notch facilities to the diverse group of investors. We also hope to bolster the Sharjah-Italian trade relations in the process”, added Al Mazrouei, who led the delegation.

Currently, HFZA has over 6200 companies - 56 of which are Italian and SAIF Zone has around 6700 companies of while only 86 are Italian.

“The bilateral trade between Italy and UAE is growing steadily and we hope to see this growth translated into an increase in the number of Italian industrial companies in SAIF Zone and HFZA”, he said.

Stressing on the Italian-Sharjah relations, he said that the Italian Industry & Commerce Office in the UAE - IICUAE which offers consistent assistance to Italian companies was the first one to be set in UAE and has been active in Sharjah since 1999.

Themed "Community, identity and vision", the three-day conference has attracted over 1600 chambers of commerce from over 108 countries.

The congress addressed the current global trends affecting chambers of commerce and their respective communities: from economic recovery to climate change and other pressing issues
