BELLEVILLE, N.J.--, UNITED STATES, June 17, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BELLEVILLE, N.J. – Tate Publishing is proud to announce the signing of local author Marybell Martinez to kick-start the publication of her children's book, "Preschool Blues."

A witty story told from a child's perspective, "Preschool Blues" is a juvenile fiction that tells the story of a boy and his very first day in preschool. Initially being intimidated by everyone else, he later finds out how preschool can be full of adventure and laughter and discovers how it can become an exciting journey.

"My inspiration to writing this book is the children that I work with. I am a Social Worker for an Early Childhood Program in Newark, New Jersey. Every year at the beginning of school, I encounter so many children who are scared and don't know what to expect from school... My goal is to make the transition easier for children and to let them know that school is a fun place where you can make friends, learn and use your imagination," shares Martinez in an interview.

A very amusing story packed with adventure and fun!
