DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, June 17, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Ramadan, a holy and auspicious month for Muslims, is traditionally associated with fasting, reflection, and an increased focus on charitable giving.

Leading B2B event organiser IQPC Middle East unveiled a unique Ramadan promotion yesterday, offering a 25% discount on standard prices for key upcoming events taking place in the MENA region – including packages to attend conferences, topical seminars and workshops.

IQPC's business conferences focus on regional hot topics in the oil and gas, power and water, construction, infrastructure development, technology, maritime and port development sectors - with the aim to drive industry growth and facilitate business. This Ramadan offer is valid for registrations received before Thursday 16 July 2015 on upcoming events – you can access the full list of events at <http://www.iqpc.ae/ramadanoffer>.

Founded in 1973, IQPC produces more than 1,700 events annually around the world, and continues to grow. IQPC conferences are market leading “must-attend” events for their respective industries, keeping stakeholders up-to-date with industry trends, technological developments and the regulatory landscape.
