

Russian Tourists No.1 stop in Thailand is Nana

BANGKOK, THAILAND, June 18, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A huge favorite destination amongst Russian tourists in Thailand is "Nana" which is the world's largest adult playground. And now Nana has been given its very own song "Nana" which is performed by "The Isan Project" Ft "Errol Reid" and "Pui Duangpon" The song recently went no1 in the iTunes chart and is tipped to be a hit in Russia.

"Nana", the song was written about Asia's most popular tourist destination. The song and video is about a Thai girl dragging her friend into the dark streets of Nana for a night out. It's no surprise everybody laughs on the skytrain when then PA announcement says "Next Station - Nana", not only is it a key station in the Thai capital for day time commuters but when the neon lights come on and the girls take their seats in the bars it becomes the busiest skytrain stop in Bangkok.

The hit is performed by Ex China Black front man "Errol Reid" who recently had two dance hits with Axwell from Swedish House Mafia and Pui Duangpon who rose to fame on "The Voice" Thailand. Executive producer from "The Isan Project" "Will Robinson" adds "it's a novelty song and the locals have called it "The Go Go Song". The project is a collaboration of Thai and Western sounds and a documentary for Asia is being filmed about it.
