

Hear the latest updates in export controls from US Department of Commerce, DGA, Airbus and Boeing

SMi's Defence Exports 2015 conference will take place on the 30th September - 1st October 2015 at the Movenpick Hotel in Amsterdam, Netherlands

AMSTERDAM, NETHERLANDS, June 18, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In December 2013, the Wassenaar Arrangement – a group of 41 countries including the United States – agreed to add so-called cybersecurity items to its list of controlled dual-use items. On May 20, 2015, the Department of Commerce, Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS), proposed a rule to implement the new dual-use controls. The proposed rule imposes an export licensing requirement for the export, re-export or transfer (in-country) of cybersecurity items to all destinations, except Canada*.

Defence Exports 2015, taking place in Amsterdam, Netherlands in September, will enable attendees to examine "cybersecurity items" with the US Department of Commerce under the proposed rule. Key presentations to discuss cyber security include:
