LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, June 23, 2015

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Chalk and markers have been around for decades, but new set of liquid chalk markers sold by Craft 4 Kidz is proving to be a safer alternative for kids.

While chalk dust is not fatal, breathing in the particles over a long period of time can result or trigger respiratory problems. The use of permanent markers can also cause a number of problems and have been shown to cause skin irritations and infections, ink poisoning through mucous membranes, allergies and lung ailments. For children who can't resist the urge to sniff the fumes contained in the markers, research has shown that overtime, this can result in permanent damage to the brain, kidneys, cardiac arrest, or suffocation from inhalation.

Craft 4 Kidz completely understands the dangers posed by these writing tools and the anxiety parents may feel in purchasing them for their children. As a result, the company has responded to parents' plight with non-toxic, water based chalk markers that are completely safe to be used by kids. These chalk markers can be used on non porous surfaces, and markings can be easily erased with a damp cloth.

"Our water-based chalk markers are the safest option if you are concerned about the safety of your kids", said Nat Black managing director of Crafts 4 Kidz. "Safety is paramount on our list for all the products we sell and the liquid chalk markers are no different."

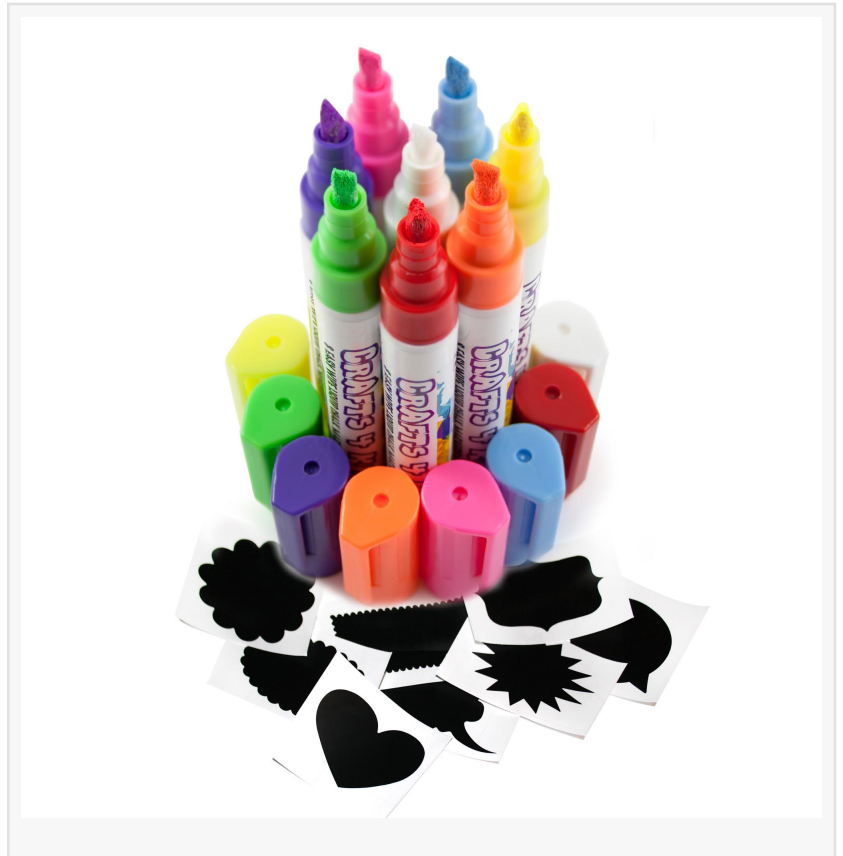

The chalk markers come in a pack of 8 vibrant and attractive colours and are ideal for art supplies. Also included in the pack of chalk markers are 24 chalk marker stickers which will make craft projects even more fun.
