

Remote Rehabs Re-Launches Fix 'n' Flip Real Estate for Passive Income Investors

Trademarked real estate investment service Remote Rehabs re-launches in new US cities to serve passive income seeking investors

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, June 23, 2015

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Dubbed 'The 100% hands-free, high return way to effortlessly and confidently generate cash flow in the hottest real estate markets in America', Remote Rehabs re-launched its fix and flip program for investors in June 2015. New cities added to the lineup of choices include Phoenix, Indianapolis, and Toledo.

Remote Rehabs

To date Remote Rehabs has offered its turnkey real estate investment services in Kansas City, and Cleveland. While the firm provides access to more traditional turnkey rental property services for passive income seeking investors; the Fix and Flip program is heralded as the hybrid solution for maximizing returns, while lowering risk. It offers passive income, with benefits of direct investment in real estate, without the headaches and time demands of hands-on renovations or being a landlord.

return $60,000.”

While rental property investing appears to be trending, founder of Remote Rehabs, Sensei Gilliland points out the advantages of fixing and flipping houses with the example of; “instead of investing in buying a single rental property that throws off $15,000 per year in cash flow, flipping four houses per year with Remote Rehabs at $15,000 each time; would

Per the Remote Rehabs website its full service approach incorporates everything from sourcing properties in the hottest US cities, to renovations, and re-marketing them on behalf of investors. Remote Rehabs' Sensei Sean Gilliland highlights says this program offers “a clear exit strategy before going in,” and the ability to “get in, get out, and get above average returns, with the least amount of risk possible in real estate.”

Remote Rehabs is a part of the Black Belt Investors' family of companies. Gilliland is host of 'The West's Top Ranked Real Estate Investors' Club' – 12 Rounds, hosts regular real estate wholesaling training workshops, and is available for speaking engagements via leading real estate industry speaker directory The Power Speakers.
