

Terre Haute writer sheds hope in moments of adversity

Indiana author Dawn Miller heals the hearts of readers and gives a glimpse of how the love of Christ has allowed a young girl to overcome her obstacles.

TERRE HAUTE, IND. --, UNITED STATES, June 30, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TERRE HAUTE, Ind. – Indiana author Dawn Miller has always had a knack for imparting encouraging words and inspiring people. In her upcoming book, 'A New Dawn,' Miller shares her story in an effort to heal the hearts of readers and to give a glimpse of how the love of Christ has allowed a young girl to overcome her obstacles.

'A New Dawn' provides an autobiographical peek into how a young girl triumphed over being abandoned by her parents and being molested as a child by becoming enlightened with Christ's love.

I see the future of this book in the hands of numerous readers impacting their lives for something so much greater than the here and now.

Alexia Hale, Acquisitions Editor

“My inspiration in writing this book was to share my story in an attempt to help others who have had similar experiences and to share the hope of healing through Christ. This project has been in the making for a number of years but really starting taking shape two years ago as I prepared for the 'She Speaks Conference hosted by Proverbs 31 Ministries,' Miller shares during an interview.

Miller's book empowers readers who are facing adversity and encourages them to respond positively to eventually have hope of a new beginning in Christ.

“We're absolutely thrilled to have Dawn as part of the Tate family of authors. I see the future of this book in the hands of numerous readers impacting their lives for something so much greater than the here and now,” states Alexia Hale, Acquisitions Editor of Tate Publishing.

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book will be available upon its release, through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Miller was born and raised in the South. She has been involved with the youth and music ministry at her church for some time and has served for a number of years in the praise band for 'Wabash Valley Ladies Unity Night,' an annual event for women to worship God through music. She has also helped co-found CD Ministries and Project H.E.L.P., a ministry that oversees volunteer opportunities for local charity organizations.

Miller's passion for enlightening and inspiring people flows through her written words. One of her devotions was published on a women's ministry blog called 'The Olive Branch'. She has also shared bits of her story with numerous women who have struggled with pain in similar areas.

Miller is married to Chris and lives in Terre Haute, Indiana with her husband and her two teenage sons, Kajun and Rylan.
