

Fort Myers Title Company Promotes Vicki Gillions to Senior Processor

Hard work and dedication lead to promotion.

FORT MYERS, FL, USA, July 1, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In November of 2008 Vicki Gillions began working at Title Junction as the Data Processor. After years of hard work she has been promoted to the position of Title Junction's Senior Processor. Vicki has a job that is crucial to preparing a property for closing because she gathers all information from the buyer and seller that will be needed to close. After Vicki has gathered all of the information needed the file can move ahead for the next steps in the closing process.

"Vicki has worked hard since she joined our team," Owner Jennifer Ferri says, "Her dedication and ability to learn quickly made her a natural fit for this promotion." When asked how she feels about her job Vicki said, "I have always enjoyed working at Title Junction and being recognized for my work with this promotion makes coming to work every day even easier."
