

Trucking and Transportation Consulting Firm CEO Andy Ahern Receives Enthusiastic Approval from Industry Peers and Clients

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, July 2, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Andy Ahern, Founder and CEO of Ahern & Associates, the premier transportation consulting and M&A advisory firm, continues to receive numerous accolades from readers and viewers of his industry newsletters and regular podcasts. Ahern & Associates has been involved in an M&A advisory capacity for clients for the past 28 years. The firm's clients have been involved in over 450 acquisitions of transportation and logistics companies, and those clients continually rely on Ahern's expertise and insight on industry news, standards, tactics, and technology.

Mr. Ahern expresses his highly sought-after views, opinions and information via regular podcasts, as well as via his popular e-newsletter, The Ahern Advisory; the newsletter is received each week by almost a quarter-million subscribers. Both mediums have continually garnered accolades for containing valuable information on topics relevant to the trucking and transportation industry including business integrity, the economy, driver retention, selling a business, outlooks for the future of the industry, laws and standards, and hundreds of others.

As the trucking and transportation industry continues to face many challenges from retaining drivers to abiding by continually changing laws and stipulations, more people are turning to Andy Ahern for sound advice and beneficial information. As an avid subscriber of Ahern's podcasts and the Ahern Advisory, the owner of a large transportation services company stated to Andy Ahern just last week:

"I have watched your video and read and shared your newsletter, but realized I never seem to take the time (by the way, time is becoming more of a precious commodity) to comment or give you any feedback on the messages and insight that you send out on a regular basis. Your insight and feet-on-the-ground word product is constantly relevant. One of my failings, and there are many, is that I should do more with the information than I do, and I'm sure there are others just like me; but you have helped myself and many others stay focused. Keep up the good work."

Available via the Ahern & Associates website, via email and also in PDF format, the Ahern Advisory makes important industry information convenient and readily-accessible for all interested readers. Persons interested in a free subscription to the Ahern Advisory newsletter can subscribe to get started. Interested parties can also listen to the Ahern & Associates podcasts via the official Ahern & Associates website, and they can also see the presentations on YouTube.
