/EINPresswire.com/ -- As kids and teachers alike are finally enjoying the arrival of summer, parents and school boards know all too well that it's never too early to think about and plan for the upcoming school year in the fall. Introducing PTBoard.com, a productivity tool for parents and teachers that make it easy to communicate, get organized, and share tasks and information. Parents, teachers and board members know the importance of keeping up to date with students' work, and how staying involved and active in school activities builds better schools and communities.

PTBoard has allowed me to communicate important dates and events to my school with cute, eye catching templates. Our families love using this compared to previous methods. Thanks, PTBoard!

With easy-to-use mobile and secure technology, PTBoard allows users to efficiently create school directories, fundraisers, school announcements, sign-up sheets, post official forms in addition to sharing documents, photos, discussions, and calendars, emergency notifications all in one convenient location. An exciting new feature called "sales & donations" will soon allow admins to set up the prefect virtual "yard" or "holiday" sale where other parents and students can donate items too. When another parent purchases an item the money goes to the PTA or PTO account.

PTAs especially love not having to pour hours into creating directories, but having all the contact information in one convenient place. It also offers the simplicity of paying for clubs and setting up successful fundraisers.

About PTBoard:

PTBoard has one mission: to make parents' and teachers' lives easier by keeping all students' activities in one place. Often times parents and faculty have to sort through hundreds of emails, search through several websites to find a field trip date or form. This integrated communication system can help the specific and different needs of both private and public schools and all PTAs and PTO organizations. PTBoard uses cutting edge technology making it easily accessible and easy to read on any device from laptops to smart phones or tablets.

"PTBoard has allowed me to communicate important dates and events to my school with cute, eye catching templates. It has allowed us to send messages easily to small or large groups. We have been able to keep our directory current as students rise into different classrooms. The staff at PTBoard is very helpful and knowledgeable about the site and helps answer any questions you may have. Our families love using this compared to previous methods. Thanks, PTBoard!" – Grace, Reston Montessori School
