

MyComeUp Digital: The World's First Self Help, Social Media Hub Launches Today

MyComeUp lets people connect, share and change their lives through inspirational content and the opportunity to network freely

LONDON, NJ, UK, July 8, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MyComeUp Digital launches today and becomes the world's first self-help, social media platform. For young people with ideas, vision and passion, not just education and credentials, MyComeUp Digital is a place to share their worth and build their own success stories.

With over 120 million page views, 19 million views and 120,000 current active members, MyComeUp Digital is poised to have over one million active users within its first year of launching, becoming the world's first and largest self-help, social media platform. MyComeUp Digital completely destroys current social media hierarchical and biased profile structures. Anyone can connect, share and change their lives.

Leonard Sekyonda, Founder and CEO, MyComeUp Digital says: "MyComeUp is a revolution. It is a leading self-help social media hub that lets people from all walks of life network and access unlimited inspirational content. . I found it hard to market myself on professional networking sites like Linkedin due to my lack of corporate and education credentials. I strongly felt that there was a need for a solution for a forgotten but growing culture of creatives and entrepreneurs, who may not have a degree from an ivy-league college or the right credentials -- But have achieved success in creating their own brands and companies. We connect people and also let them explain themselves by providing them a platform to share their stories."

With daily fresh content, features on established and up and coming social influencers, creatives and successful global entrepreneurs, MyComeUp Digital speaks directly to the modern day hustlers out there, on the come-up. It also gives young writers and leaders opportunities to contribute with mentoring and community support programs, events and platforms to share their work.

Every account gets to engage on this site. MyComeUp Digital gives everyone a chance to join for free, share their own profiles, business ideas, content and network.

MyComeUp is a self-help, social media site and company started by Lenoard Sekyonda and Deji Okunade. With over 120,000 current active members, and soon to be over 1 million active users, it is poised to become the world's largest self-help social media hub. www.mycomeup.com https://twitter.com/MYCOMEUP https://www.youtube.com/user/mycomeup https://www.facebook.com/mycomeup.entrepreneurs?fref=ts https://instagram.com/mycomeup_official/
