

Rosy Toes Designs Thinks Ahead to Holidays, Sends LOVE Wristlets to 2015 NYC Holiday Press Gifting

Rosy Toes Designs to gift its LOVE Wristlets to top media outlets at Consumer Products Holiday All-Press Gifting Event, in partnership with The Artisan Group®.

LAURA, OHIO, USA, July 8, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rose Toes Designs (<http://www.RosyToesDesigns.com>) will gift its LOVE Wristlets to top media outlets at the 2015 Consumer Products Holiday All-Press Gifting Event, in partnership with The Artisan Group®, while its one-of-a-kind Dragon Messenger Bag will be showcased on display. The event takes place July 8, 2015 in New York City.

Each Artisan Group® gift bag will include a Rosy Toes Designs LOVE Wristlet, handcrafted from felted wool and embellished with the word "Love" in silk roving. The wristlets are soft, durable and perfect for an evening bag, everyday use or even a wedding clutch. The wristlets are ideal for gifting to individuals who enjoy having and using artisanal objects constructed with a creative eye and meticulous craftsmanship.

Fiber artist and designer Lucy Chapman, founder of Rosy Toes Designs, says she was inspired to create the wristlets for this exclusive gifting event because, "Love is a universal theme and especially pertinent around the holidays. I think the contrast of the shimmering silk against the fuzzy nature of the felted wool is not only beautiful, but reflects the tender yet sturdy nature of love."

The gift bag will be presented to magazine, newspaper and online editors, top bloggers, and TV, radio and online producers attending the event. Past attendees have included Allure Magazine, People Magazine, The Wall Street Journal, the L.A. Times, the New York Times, Ladies Home Journal, GQ and USA Today, among other publications.

The LOVE Wristlet is available to purchase at rosytoesdesigns.com and retails for $65.00.

Showcased on display at The Artisan Group's exhibit will be a Rosy Toes Designs Dragon Messenger Bag, handcrafted from felted wool and lined with cotton lining. Of the messenger bag Chapman says, "I wanted to create something that really stood out—a true artistic statement piece that would be perfect for gifting to that special someone."

Chapman started the bag with an unusual dragon jacquard ribbon and the piece evolved from there. "There are bits of inspiration everywhere, from the large red and gold dragon on the body of the bag to the lining that is printed with a large oriental dragon to the strap covered with dragons. This bag is totally different from anything I've done before and I love how it turned out!"
