

World Upstream / PetroAfricanus Clubs – Summer Party and Networking Reception

THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, July 9, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With the support of the World Trade Center (The Hague), West Holland Foreign Investment Agency and The Municipality of The Hague, Global Pacific & Partners is pleased to host our 72nd World Upstream / PetroAfricanus Clubs – Summer Party and Networking Reception, on Wednesday 23rd September 2015, at the World Trade Center, The Hague.

We are also pleased to welcome the support of our contributing sponsors, Hague and London Oil, Rabobank and Buren Lawyers, CGG, SPTEC and Impact Oil & Gas and Club Patron 2015: Preng & Associates

Our Clubs, worldwide and on Africa, act to connect corporate and state players, and facilitate critical industry interests and deal flow in the global upstream industry, by providing unique networking forums with peers and players, and allied social programs for companies, governments and national oil companies within the worldwide oil and gas industry, and across the value chain.

Over the last 12 years, over 6,000 attendees have been participants at our Club functions held in London, Geneva, The Hague, Paris, Calgary, Houston, Rio de Janeiro, Beijing, Tokyo, Singapore, Sydney, Perth, Marrakech, Tunis, Cape Town, Johannesburg, Nairobi, Kampala, Maputo, Antananarivo, and Dar-es-Salaam.

This Reception will be held on the WTC Terrace, hosted by Babette van Gessel (Chief Executive, Global Pacific & Partners), with Guest Speaker, and welcome from the Vice Mayor of The Hague, Ingrid van Engelshoven.

They hope you can join them for this unique social-networking occasion.

Registration is gratis but is required for all attendees in advance of the Reception, including PetroAfricanus Club and World Upstream Club, and Global Women Petroleum and Energy Club Members.
