

Intratem Enterprise Mobility Management Announces the Launch of their New Website

The new look quickly highlights the benefits of Wireless Expense Management and greatly improves user experience.

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, July 9, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Intratem is pleased to announce the launch of their newly redesigned website, <http://www.intratem.com>. The new website delivers a quick overview of all the benefits of Intratem managed services. Visitors will be able to quickly learn about Enterprise Mobility Management or EMM, Mobile Device Management (MDM), Expense Reduction, ad-hoc reporting, and end-to-end mobility helpdesk. Resources such as downloadable white papers, online videos, and a no-obligation mobility expense assessment helps visitors feel confident when choosing Intratem.

"Our new website simply lays out the core of our services and delivers information at a glance for today's busy CIO's and CFO's," said Alex Dukhovny, Director of Business Development at Intratem. "With tens of thousands of lines under management, we are able to quickly find the best solutions for virtually any mobility related issue and offer insight to our prospective and current clients through this new website."

Founded in 2004, Intratem continues to deliver average wireless expense savings of 25% for its clients without changing carriers, contracts, or the need for any new equipment or software. A group of hands-on mobility professionals provides comprehensive reporting, favored by clients' accounting departments across vast industries, and an end-to-end mobility helpdesk capable of handling everything from basic password resets to complex Level III support issues.

"Majority of the time, our fees are derived from the savings we produce for our clients and more often than not these savings exceed our costs two-fold," said Dimitry Malinsky, Co-Founder and CEO of Intratem. "What better way to introduce ourselves than through a fully rebuilt website, complete with employee profiles, select list of clients, and much more?"
