

New American Funding Adds Two Retail Branches in El Paso, TX

New American Funding, a national mortgage banker headquartered in Southern California, today announces the addition of two retail branches in El Paso, TX.

EL PASO, TX, USA, July 10, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New American Funding, a national mortgage banker headquartered in Southern California, today announces the addition of two retail branches in El Paso, TX. The El Paso-East location will be led by Stephen Sepulveda and El Paso-West branch will be managed by Tania Guzman.

New American Funding's President, Patty Arvielo commented, "We lead the way in educating consumers about mortgage lending. The El Paso branches bring a particularly good understanding of how to best serve Spanish speaking consumers and overcome frequent home mortgage challenges for Latinos. We're celebrating the addition of these remarkable teams."

With over 80 retail branches across the U.S., New American Funding's expansion into El Paso marks the company's sustained growth in the industry. The branches will provide mortgage services to consumers and Real Estate Agents facilitating home purchase loans in the El Paso area. "It's an exciting time for our team. Our productivity is soaring because we're focused on integrity and dedicated to the task at hand," commented Sepulveda.

With in-house loan origination, processing, underwriting, funding, and servicing, New American Funding offers considerably faster closing times than their competitors, and has earned a reputation of efficiency in the mortgage and real estate industries.

"We don't just do things quickly, we do things the right way and we pay attention to the details. Since we don't have the hassle of bank overlays to deal with, we can focus on giving our clients what they need. We strive to earn their business by earning their trust," added Guzman.
