

Multi-dimensional entrepreneur applies a "Stickability Factor" to Quantum Leap business acumen

dplnk champions talent by empowering formidable futures of winning, Founder-CEO moves swim lanes under one Quantum Leap umbrella of performance.

CARTHAGE, NORTH CAROLINA, MOORE COUNTY, July 17, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ms. Donna L. Quesinberry, Founder-CEO of dplnk: Donnalnk Publications, L.L.C. has a new website: www.donnalquesinberry.com, which embraces the Quantum Leap mindset by spotlighting purposeful living and empowerment through ignition of tactical stratagems, business and intelligence development, pursuit governance and ultimately solution(s) breakthroughs. Through "Q's" (as she likes to be called) foray of skills actualization is achieved, resulting in Client successes. Survival in life, and business, involves resolute ability to cope with competition while deploying focused self-awareness and reservoirs of knowledge. Through lifetime coach and mentor relationships, in addition to formal education and training, as a business developer, intelligence architect and empowerment guru Ms. Quesinberry aids authors, business executives, entrepreneurs, individuals and others. A survivor in business and life pursuits, "Q" delivers inherent capabilities for identifying requirements, and then defining and implementing solutions, all the while remaining steadfast regarding Client and personal empowerment.

"Q's" talents aid others to learn more about themselves. In so doing, her Clients hone personal instincts, identify under-recognized potential and ultimately achieve progressive results. Believing

It takes knowing our personal story to understand how to pay it forward in order to positively impact others.

Through undeviating requisites demonstrated through life, career, family and intentional focus as a creative force, our pursuits soar.

knowing is "half the battle" that becomes a whole when coupled with treasures of past performance; as a Consultant, "Q" has amassed a wealth of understanding working with, for, and alongside many of the most aspiring minds in federal and commercial industry sectors. Mentoring, coaching and one-on-one training during her journey of survival as a single parent of five children, has earned "Q" the distinction of "knowing the other half of the battle," which she extends to her Clientele.

The new Donna L. Quesinberry website for dplnk, follows Quantum Leap thinking and presents "Q's" service offerings, which include:

- Empowerment (business, C-level, executive, health and wellness, life purpose, professional, relationship, and transition)
- Government and Commercial Consulting (business development, capture planning and proposals)
- Publishing (select nonfiction and fiction)

We need to know our story of survival and its resultant message, which depicts our ultimate success or "Stickability" to stay the course.
