

American Council of the Blind Announces Winners of the 2015 Audio Description Awards

WASHINGTON , DC, USA, July 21, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The American Council of the Blind (ACB) proudly announces the winners of the 2015 Achievement Awards in Audio Description, an initiative of the Council's Audio Description Project (ADP).

In conjunction with ACB's 54th annual conference and convention in Dallas, TX, the awards were presented at a plenary session of the conference.

The prestigious awards included:

- Achievement in Audio Description – Performing Arts: Jesse Minkert, Arts and Visually Impaired Audiences - Seattle, WA
- Achievement in Audio Description – Media: Netflix – Los Gatos, CA
- Achievement in Audio Description – Museums: Meadows Museum of Art / Southern Methodist University – Dallas, TX
- Achievement in Audio Description – International: Anne Hornsby, Mind's Eye – Bolton, United Kingdom
- Special Recognition Achievement in Audio Description: Sebastian Andrade-Miles - Glendale, CO
- Dr. Margaret R. Pfanstiehl Memorial Achievement Award in Audio Description – Research and Development: Accessible Media, Inc. "AMI Player" – Toronto, Canada
- Barry Levine Memorial Award for Career Achievement in Audio Description: Dr. Pilar Orero – Barcelona, Spain

The Achievement Awards are made to individuals and/or organizations for outstanding contributions to the establishment and/or continued development of significant audio description programs. The Barry Levine Memorial Award for Career Achievement in Audio Description recognizes an individual for outstanding contributions to the field of audio description over an extended period of time, leading, inspiring or providing significant service to others.

"Audio Description uses words that are succinct, vivid, and imaginative to convey the visual image from television, film, DVDs, theater, museums and many other settings," stated Kim Charlson, president of the American Council of the Blind. "The organizations and individuals honored with these awards are among the leaders in description. They help make so many aspects of our culture accessible to people who are blind or have low vision; they deserve this special recognition."
