

SNB Promotes New Commercial Services Officer, Commercial Services Representative

Security National Bank promoted Colin Tague to Commercial Services Officer. SNB has also promoted Chris Jackson to Commercial Service Representative.

SIoux CITY, IA, USA, July 20, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- D. Douglas Rice, President of Security National Bank, Sioux City, Iowa, announced the following promotions.

Colin Tague was elected Commercial Services Officer in the Commercial/Ag Department. He joined Security National Bank in June 2015 with eleven years of banking and consumer finance background. Most recently, he was a Senior Business Relationship Manager for Wells Fargo Bank in Omaha, NE. serving Commercial and Business clients.

Tague, a Sergeant Bluff native, graduated from Wayne State College in 2004 with Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and Finance. While at Wayne State, he graduated Magna Cum Laude, was a Presidential Scholar Award winner, and a three time letter winner as a member of their NCAA Division II Men's Basketball team.

As a Commercial Services Officer, Tague is responsible for working with area business and commercial clients to help them with their borrowing, deposit or cash management needs.

Also joining the Commercial Department is Chris Jackson. Jackson joined Security National Bank in 2012 as a Personal Banker in the Retail Banking Division. In April of this year, he was promoted to Commercial Services Representative. Prior to joining SNB, he had four years of previous banking experience and three years as a Locations Manager for Long Lines Wireless.

Jackson recently received his Associate's Degree in Accounting from Western Iowa Tech Community College and is continuing his education at Briar Cliff University where he is working towards his Bachelors' Degree in Accounting. Currently he is active in the Sioux City Growth Organization and a volunteer with the Children's Museum.
