

GSF Mortgage Appoints New CFO

GSF Mortgage is pleased to welcome Bruce Olster as its new Chief Financial Officer

BROOKFIELD, WISCONSIN, UNITED STATES, July 23, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GSF Mortgage is pleased to announce that Bruce Olster will be its new Chief Financial Officer, effective immediately. In his role, Olster will maintain and develop relationships with financial partners, deal with investors that lend to the company and oversee financial reports as well as internal management and operations reports.

Olster has held various leadership positions throughout his extensive career in the financial services and mortgage industries, including firms in Florida and Illinois. He specializes in managing, growing and financing mortgage companies.

Olster holds a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Pennsylvania Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, and also completed the Advanced Management Program at Harvard Business School.

This is a great opportunity and a great company. The importance of capital to a lending company is a critical part of the company's success. GSF Mortgage is well positioned for future growth.

Bruce Olster

Before joining GSF Mortgage, Olster was senior vice president for the multifamily warehouse lending divisions at Banco Popular North America. He was also CEO and co-founder of NattyMac LLC, a nationwide mortgage warehouse company that served single- and multi-family independent mortgage bankers.

“This is an easy subject for me because it is something I am passionate about. This is a great opportunity and a great company. The importance of capital to a lending company is a critical part of the company's success,” says Olster. “GSF

Mortgage is well positioned for future growth.”

“I'm elated that Bruce has agreed to join the GSF family. His vast experience in the lending industry will undoubtedly strengthen GSF's knowledge base and ability to lend safely and profitably. For me personally, I have an opportunity to work alongside an industry great. Bruce is a great teacher and I'm sure I will learn a great deal from him,” says Chad Jampedro, president.

Olster can be reached at (262) 901-1428 or bolster@gogsf.com.
