

Irwin author signs with Tate to publish romantic fiction

Tate Publishing confirms their partnership with Iowa author, Tammy Larsen.

IRWIN, IA. --, UNITED STATES, July 30, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IRWIN, Ia. – Tate Publishing confirms their partnership with Iowa author, Tammy Larsen, to begin the publication process of her fictional romance novel, “Brock’s Angel.”

“Brock’s Angel,” tells the tale of two people meant to be together. But when outside forces are determined to tear them apart, Brock and Shanna finds themselves losing each other and fighting for the love that they believe in.

“My inspiration came from my love of reading and writing. This book has been in the making for about ten years. I had to restart the writing twice because my computer crashed and then it was accidentally deleted,” Larsen shares in an interview.

The classic ending of good overcoming and true love winning out is a triumph after the loss in the book. I think readers will look forward to more from this writer!

*Stacy Baker, Acquisitions
Editor*

“Tammy has a great way of developing her characters and writes in a very relational style. The classic ending of good overcoming and true love winning out is a triumph after the loss in the book. I think readers will look forward to more from this writer!” Acquisitions Editor, Stacy Baker, enthuses.

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book will be available upon its release, through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Tammy Larsen was born in Council Bluffs, Iowa and had lived there most of her childhood. She graduated from Omaha South high in Omaha, Nebraska, and received her Associates Degree for Medical Assistant from Hamilton College in Council Bluffs. She continued working in the medical field for a few years and attended classes to obtain her EMT until she felt it was time to get out of the medical industry. Currently she works in metal fabrication for a company in Harlan, Iowa and resides in rural Irwin, Iowa with her three children. Tammy’s hobbies are writing and quilting and when she can find the time, likes to strum on the guitar.
