ROCHESTER, N.Y.--, UNITED STATES, July 30, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ROCHESTER, N.Y. – Author Paul Sutliff signs with Tate Publish to kick-start the publication process of his book, "Civilization Jihad and the Myth of Moderate Islam."

Sutliff's "Civilization Jihad and the Myth of Moderate Islam" covers the history of the Muslim Brotherhood and Islamic definition of 'jihad.'

When asked of the inspiration behind the book, "I discovered the Muslim Brotherhood at Nazareth College of Rochester, where I earned my Master's in Education. They had accepted $500,000 from the International Institute of Islamic Thought. It took me less than an hour of research to learn who they were and how they are connected to the Al Qaeda and the Muslim Brotherhood. So, I asked questions about this but the college black listed me from an alumni college site for doing just that! That prompted me to do a ton more of research and a lot of a writing! This book was also inspired by the great men and women of Radio Jihad Network, the 912 group of Rochester and the worker bees of ACT! for America. I believe that it is time we awaken and recognize the enemy that declared war against us, for, without doing this we are doomed to lose a war that our government refuses to acknowledge," Sutliff shares.

"A very enlightening and intriguing read crafted by one of Tate's best authors!" Stacy Bakes, Acquisitions Editor said.

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book will be available upon its release, through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Paul Sutliff considers himself an awakened patriot who can no longer remain quiet. Paul has a BA in Religion and Philosophy from Roberts Wesleyan College and a MSED from Nazareth College of Rochester. Paul was also one of the Editors and Writers for the Special Education series of Xam Online's Teacher Certification Exam study guides and was a former Editor of the berean Research Report.
