

Energy Healer CJ Hathaway to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

GENEVA, ILLINOIS, USA, July 31, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As science continues to expand our knowledge of how energy works, more and more people are beginning to understand the connection between energy, our physical bodies, healing and health. Terms like 'energy healing' and 'energy medicine' are becoming more common as well-known medical professionals like Dr. Mehmet Oz and Dr. Deepak Chopra talk about them in the mainstream media.

There are many types of energy healing – yoga, Tai Chi, Qigong, acupuncture, meditation and Reiki to name just a few – but in general, energy healing is about balancing the body's energy so that it can return to a state of health.

CJ Hathaway has been passionate about energy healing for over 30 years and is certified in Reiki, ARCH Healing and The Emotion Code. Her unique healing style is based on The Emotion Code with the addition of individualized coaching and sharing of simple healing and awareness tools she's picked up from her own journey and ongoing study,

When we clear the energy of negative emotions from a person's body, they begin to 'see with new eyes.' Challenges are transformed into possibilities and opportunities.

“Most of us were never taught that, like everything in the universe, our feelings are made of energy that can affect not only our physical and emotional wellbeing but our entire life experience,” says Hathaway. “Many believe that emotions just 'happen' to us and are beyond our control, when in fact there are simple tools that can help us transform negative emotions like anxiety, resentment and anger into positive emotions like happiness, gratitude and love.”

“When we clear the energy of negative emotions from a person's body, they begin to 'see with new eyes.' Circumstances previously viewed as challenges are transformed into possibilities and opportunities,” says Hathaway. “They start making choices more aligned with their health and happiness.”

Energy healing addresses all aspects of a person — body, mind and spirit — not just symptoms. Many clients have experienced not only a resolution to a physical or emotional issue, but also a spiritual awakening.

“I’m passionate about my work because it’s simple, non-invasive and incredibly empowering,” says Hathaway. “As people gain a new level of self-awareness and are given some simple tools and coaching, this process eventually leads to feeling great no matter what circumstances arise. People begin to shine the light of who they truly are. How could I not love my work!”

CUTV News Radio will feature CJ Hathaway in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on August 3rd at 1pm EST.
