The Extreme Auto Car Show will provide an exciting opportunity to view classic cars, carefully restored or maintained by private collectors, representing different eras of motor vehicle transportation.

"Car enthusiasts will appreciate the variety of this year's awesome entries and the quality work that their owners put into them," said Extreme Auto Repair owner and car show organizer, Dennis Brewster. "The show will be a cruise down Memory Lane for those who grew up with a love for automobiles. There will be something to see for people of all ages."

Awards will be presented to owners of the top three cars, 1959 and older, and the top three cars, 1960 and newer. A best in show award will be presented to the owner of the top car overall.

Extreme Auto Repair loyalty cards offering 15 percent off any repair service anytime a vehicle is brought to the shop over the next year will be available to attendees.

The Drive Radio show, KLZ 560 AM, will be broadcasting again from the event, offering insight and tips for taking proper care of your vehicle. They will be announcing the car show winners at 1 p.m.
