

Curtiss-Wright Launches New Website to Showcase Products and Services from the Industrial Division Family

HATFIELD, PA, USA, August 3, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Curtiss-Wright Corporation's (NYSE: CW) Industrial Division today announced the launch of a new website containing the full portfolio of products, services and capabilities offered by its EST Group, which joined the Division's Valve Group in January 2015.

The new website can be found at www.cw-estgroup.com

Commenting for Curtiss-Wright, the Industrial division's Senior Vice President & General Manager Kevin Rayment says: "Our completely redesigned internet presence highlights the Industrial division's full breadth of products and capabilities, and its global reach. The EST Group is supported by a worldwide network of 82 representative firms, and along with support from the Farris Group, offers existing customers and new ones, a truly comprehensive support system. Their proprietary GripTight® Isolation Plug and recently launched GripTight® Max Test Plug offer advances in performance and maintenance, and highlight Curtiss-Wright's commitment to its customers' safety."

For existing visitors and customers, we are providing a seamless transition to a familiar environment, as access to the previous domain will be automatically redirected to relevant pages on the new EST Group site. Brochures and literature that showcase the products and applications of Curtiss-Wright's EST Group are published and available to download from the new site.
