

Flippers Pizzeria Welcomes Students of all Ages Back to School

Florida schools begin classes, and Flippers Pizzeria is ready to fuel young minds.

ORLANDO, FL, USA, August 13, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- It's officially August—when the celebratory sounds of splashing pools and sizzling summer grills are replaced by the more serious tones of zippering backpacks, pencil sharpeners, and school bells. Yes, it's back to the classroom for thousands of students across Florida, and Flippers Pizzeria, a longtime "Partner in Education," is welcoming everyone back to the books with delicious meals for all.

"We may be biased, but we think a pizza party is the best way to welcome students back to school," said Kelly Pfister, Marketing Director at Flippers Pizzeria. "Not only is our pizza the freshest and best tasting around, it's the perfect fuel for busy students and families who are constantly on the go."

For decades, Flippers Pizzeria has made it easy for teachers and administrators to host pizza parties at their schools. "We deliver your order, and our friendly staff will even set up everything for you if needed," said Pfister. "Ask about our special educator pricing on all pizza orders to always get the best pizza deals."

An extensive catering menu is available at all Florida pizza locations of Flippers Pizzeria. According to Pfister, Flippers staff will even help customers determine portion sizes from the pizzeria menu.

Richardson went on to mention, "Our breadsticks are a fan favorite at all of our restaurants, thanks to hand-crafted dough that's brick-oven baked to a crispy outside and fluffy inside, then brushed with garlic butter, fresh spices, and Romano cheese."

With quality ingredients at the peak of freshness and a signature brick-oven cooking technique customers won't find anywhere else, Flippers Pizzeria is often rated at the top of the lists of best pizza places.
