

Area Business Hires New Trainer

Award Winning Local Business Soars To New Heights

WEST DES MOINES, IA, UNITED STATES, August 21, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Canine Country Club, West Des Moines' first all-inclusive doggy daycare, boarding, grooming and training facility announces hiring accomplished dog trainer Troy Lyons.

Troy, a child of the farm, grew up with 4-H, horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and of course, dogs. As a passionate animal lover, Troy has been the fur-parent to at least one dog his entire life.

Troy has been working in the training world more than half a decade following his time working for an international dog food company in sales and ultimately in nutritional development.

Troy sets out each and every day with one goal; making things easier for both his fur-students and their parents, by building a true bond utilizing positive reinforcement, regardless of breed. His mission statement is simple and straight forward; keep the pups out of the pound or from being re-homed. Troy is an advocate for revising breed standards and helping families all over keep their animals, safe, happy and healthy.

When Troy isn't at Canine Country Club working with his guests and students, you may find him on the couch with his dogs reading a Jack Kerouac or Christopher Rice novel.

Canine Country Club offers a vast array of training opportunities for dogs of all ages and breeds. For more information on training, please visit www.ccc-wdm.com
