

Tracy Durrant of Healing the Mind Body & Soul to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

SANDY, UTAH, USA, August 25, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- All our stress and symptoms are our body's way of letting us know there is something occurring within us that we are ready to heal and release. The symptoms and stress are literally the language of the subconscious mind. Whether the challenge we are experiencing shows up as emotional, mental, physical, or spiritual dis-ease, it can be found and released, thereby creating harmony and healing on a deep level, where permanent healing occurs.

Tracy Durrant is an energy healer and founder of Healing the Mind Body & Soul, where she specializes in a unique modality known as The Emotion Code, a holistic form of healing that allows us to release the trapped emotions that prevent our mind, body and soul from moving forward in positive and healthy ways.

“I was always drawn to energy healing but I never thought I would end up working in the field,” says Tracy. “Things happened in my life that forced me to look in directions other than Western Medicine to start helping myself. I found the Emotion Code by surrendering to loving myself. That’s when the universe opened up and took me under her wing and guided me to holistic healing. I desire to help other people because I’ve seen it change my life in dramatic and profound ways.”

Alternative medicine gives you the platform to take your healing back into your own hands.

According to Tracy, our subconscious mind holds every detail of our life’s experience. Trapped emotions are negative energies that distort the normal energy field of the body, creating pain as well as all manner of disease. These trapped emotions are also the driving force behind the unwanted patterns we seem to create and recreate in our daily lives. Through a combination of muscle testing and her intuitive skills, Tracy can identify our trapped emotions and release them through our energetic meridians.

Tracy says the majority of her clients are women and mothers of children who have been frustrated with traditional medicine and are looking for alternatives.

“These are people that are being called to take their own power back, their healing and their health back,” says Tracy. “They’ve taken their healing into their own hands. Alternative medicine gives them the platform and the voice to do just that.”

And as a Certified Clairvoyant and Intuitive Healer, a session with Tracy is more of an experience. There’s an opportunity for truly profound healing to occur.

“It doesn’t feel like a job,” says Tracy. “It feels like a calling, something I was born to do. My own personal wounds broke me open so that I can be open enough to treat with the Soul instead of the mind. I love that I am able to help people. It can’t get any better than that.”

CUTV News Radio will feature Tracy Durrant in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on August 27th at 12pm EST.
