

Family Sells Everything; Makes Way for Dream of Hope

Living beyond not only their means, but desires; family chooses to bless others world wide with service and a story of hope.

DENVER, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, August 28, 2015

/EINPresswire.com/ -- When Eric Helmick handed out pencils and papers to his wife and 5 children, he expected them to create a significant item list. He was surprised when all the papers were returned blank. Just one year ago, Helmick came home from a local casino where he worked as a food and beverage manager. He was tired, and disenchanted with the life he and his wife of 30 years had created. They owned a bed and breakfast to help pay the increasing bills, but unable to sustain a good enough income he found a job in the casino. On this particular night, he had decided that life wasn't paying its dividends. As he handed out the pencil and paper to each family member, he asked them to "write down everything in this house you cannot live without." Staring at the blank pages before him, Helmick realized that not only was his family living beyond their means, they were living beyond their desires.

That night, "Help!" was born. Help, for those who've lost hope.

Today, Help! World Tour is a mobile theatrical musical that brings a Gospel revival through a story of love and hope to communities world wide.

But what's capturing people's hearts is not just the musical, but the cast of characters behind this epic production. While in your city, the cast and crew spend their time volunteering in community service – working with counsels, shires, and non-profit organizations - they come prepared with their own tools to work, and work hard!

No one on staff is paid! In fact, cast members pay to be a part of Help! These fees go towards lodging, meals and transportation, leaving all other donations available for the production and service work Help! brings to communities.

Most recently, Help! sent a team of volunteers to Vanuatu to assist with rescue efforts following Cyclone Pam.

Now, Help! is preparing to launch their world tour and Australia - the Land Down Under, is the beneficiary of this talented group of acrobats and actors. It is quality entertainment with a moral, gospel message. Imagine a show as big as Circue Du Soleil — but Free in your city!

However, before “Help!” can go on tour, this production needs its own kind of help. That’s why they launched a Kickstarter campaign. The goal of this project is to raise $1,000,000 by September 19, 2015. The funds raised will go towards purchasing a stage, and tent, so the production can be "indoors" out of the weather.

To help bring “Help!” to life, please visit the Kickstarter campaign or click here. Rewards, including a trip for 2 to Australia, will be delivered between October 2015 and January 2016.

Please keep in mind this is an “all-or-nothing” deal, which means if the campaign does not reach the funding goal then the project cannot move forward. So know that any amount given can make a difference, and this is an incredible opportunity to be a part of a special campaign! Help this production reach the goal by sharing this on Facebook, Twitter, and other social networks. The more people know about this, the more support the campaign will receive.
