

Trump Urged to Include Child Identity Theft Issue with Presidential Policy Platform by SubscriberWise Executive

Children have their social security numbers stolen often and with ease. Trump should advocate on behalf of children; Congress and the establishment have not.

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, U.S.A., August 30, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SubscriberWise, the nation's largest issuing consumer reporting agency for the communications industry and the leading provider of analytics-driven subscriber risk management technology, announced today that the company is continuing its efforts to expose the dangerous and very common problem of child identity theft to Presidential candidate Donald J. Trump.

Global Credit Czar and Child Protector David Howe

"On behalf of victim children who suffer in silence everywhere, I offer the following audio recording to Donald Trump: http://subscriberwise.com/media/12_Year_Victim_Now_Adult.wav," said David Howe, president of SubscriberWise. "I'm requesting Mr. Trump's engagement with a critical issue that deserves immediate nationwide attention:

Congress and establishment politicians have been asleep at the wheel on this issue.”

"Congress and establishment politicians have been asleep at the wheel on this issue. They've failed to implement technology solutions that would dramatically improve identity protections for the nation's children," concluded Howe.

"Children deserve better. I hope Mr. Trump agrees."

About SubscriberWise

SubscriberWise® launched as the first U.S. issuing consumer reporting agency exclusively for the cable industry in 2006. In 2009, SubscriberWise and TransUnion announced a joint marketing agreement for the benefit of America's independent cable operators. Today SubscriberWise is a risk management preferred-solutions provider for the National Cable Television Cooperative.

SubscriberWise contributions to the communications industry are today quantified in the billions of dollars annually.

David Howe is founder, president, and majority share-holder of SubscriberWise. He is also a consultant and credit manager for MCTV. At MCTV, Howe manages the bad debt and equipment losses on annual sales in excess of $60 million. During his 19-year career at MCTV, Howe has reviewed more than 50,000 credit submissions. His interest in credit began in 1986 while a 17-year-old student in high school.

Howe is recognized as one of the most productive and engaged child identity theft experts of the 21st century. Today Howe is using the resources of SubscriberWise to help protect children from identity theft and exploitation across the nation:
