

Author Brings Fiction Book To Life With Prizes and Tour

Dr. Annmarie Edwards Jamaica Historical Tour and Prizes No One Is Talking About

HENDERSON, NEVADA, UNITED STATES, September 1, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Annmarie Edwards, author of "Peewee the Ladybug and the Jamaica Freedom Jamboree," is offering readers a chance to win prizes by answering two questions about events from the book.

"Contestants can enter to win two prizes: the Jamaican Freedom Jamboree Award™, valued at $199.99, and a T-shirt valued at $65.99," says Edwards. Entry is limited to current United States residents who are 18 years of age or older. One submission is allowed per email account. Edwards says "To view the rules and enter the contest, visit <http://wshe.es/thlz07er>."

Readers who want to see "Peewee the Ladybug and the Jamaica Freedom Jamboree" come alive can also join Dr. Edwards on a trip to Jamaica's Montego Bay on October 8-12, 2015. "The Jamaica Freedom Jamboree Getaway takes fans of the book through its historical adventure and includes a stay at the Sunset Beach

About the Book

Courage, mystery, and celebration unite in "Peewee the Ladybug and the Jamaica Freedom Jamboree," which chronicles the adventures of eight animals as they celebrate the 150th anniversary of Jamaica's Morant Bay rebellion. These exciting characters explore the struggles of 1800s Jamaicans and reexamine their own beliefs about trust, history, and community.
