

New Development prepares to shake up property landscape in Chengdu's Hi-Tech Zone

Chinese Financial Center aims to develop a unique identity in the area

CHENGDU, SICHUAN, CHINA, September 11, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chengdu, September 10, 2015: Huaqiao Fenghuang Group has begun taking orders for its offices, residences, and commercial space in its new multi-use development named "Chinese Financial Center" located Chengdu's increasingly crowded Hi-tech Zone. The new development will include two 38-story towers devoted to class-A office space and an additional two towers devoted to residences and serviced apartments. The lower levels of the complex will include a shopping center, three levels of parking, a luxury club, fine dining, supermarket, and culinary specialties from around the world.

The Chinese Financial Center aims to distinguish itself by offering unique features including direct metro access to line 1 Financial City station through an underground tunnel much like Raffles City with the Sichuan Gymnasium station. Furthermore, the residences will be designed in the style of luxury fashion houses Hermes, Ferragamo, and Bvlgari. The Chinese Financial Center will also boast apartments serviced by the International Butler Academy located in The Netherlands. The Chinese Financial Center is located at No.8 Jiao zi Avenue, Hi-Tech Zone, Chengdu,China.
