

Gwen Rietze of Herbs For Your Health to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

COCHRANE, ALBERTA, CANADA, September 15, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In the future medicine will be almost exclusively energy medicine. With the rise of energy medicine, it is now possible to address physical and emotional issues in just a session or two. Soon more people will be healing themselves rather than turning to prescription medication.

Gwen Rietze is a certified herbalist, energy healer and the founder of Herbs For Your Health, where she specializes in providing her clients a holistic healing opportunity.

“People realize life can be better. I teach them to help themselves and there isn’t a session that goes by that I don’t learn something,” says Gwen. “I’m proud that people trust me with their health. Having been down the road myself, I know it’s a precious thing.”

For over 16 years, Gwen has helped clients restore their health through the use of natural herbs. More recently, however, she came to realize the cause for many of her clients’ ailments were emotional in nature.

“My clients would come to me for herbs, but there was often a missing piece,” says Gwen. “Emotions resonate at certain frequencies. That’s why the herbal program is so unique. I’m trying to select herbal products that correspond to the unique frequency of a person’s body.”

A master of holistic healing, Gwen is certified in the Emotion Code and Body Code, an energy healing modality that that allows us to the identify and remove energies trapped in the body that negatively impact all aspects of your life, mind, body and spirit.

“When I found the Emotion Code, I found the missing piece to complete the puzzle of complete wellness,” says Gwen. “My clients no longer have to repeat the same behavior over and over. We can now deal with their body, spirit and emotions to free them from those patterns.”

Gwen is also a Sho-Tai practitioner. Sho-Tai is based on traditional Chinese Medicine, knowledge and techniques to test the body’s level of health. Through a one-on-one consultation, Gwen examines her clients’ iridology, tongue and face and muscle tests the body to identify the cause of our issues so we can eliminate the disease or the discomfort.

“As herbalists we can never cure a disease, but we can give the body the tools to heal. Energy is the same way,” says Gwen. “God put in us to do good works and help others. That’s how we become the best we can be. We can take all our life’s experiences and turn it into a flower to help someone else. When you get that feeling in your heart and your soul that you want to help others, you’re on the right path.”
