Lovinah Natural Skincare founder Joy Ekhaton is a strong believer in making the time to take care of yourself, no matter how busy your day, your week, your life. She says, "Give yourself 10 minutes of Self-Love every week for a healthy body, mind and spirit. If you don't take time to meditate, relax and enjoy the simple pleasures life has to offer because you're so busy giving your "all" to your loved ones, your community and your job, you will burn out!"

Joy has formulated 100% organic Ocean Rituals Self-Love Infusion DeTox Bath to pamper, soothe, relax and restore. It is designed to help wash away worries and harmful toxins with a proprietary mix of Spirulina, seaweed, Dead Sea salt and rose petals.

Lovinah Natural Skincare is an eco-chic company offering handcrafted bath and body products that promote a healthy lifestyle. Soaps, scrubs, serums and more are inspired by the beauty of nature. In addition to year-round favorites, the company regularly introduces seasonal lines, like the upcoming Pumpkin and Spice scrub, mask, serum and balm, which will help keep skin deeply moisturized and soft during the winter months.

A percentage of proceeds from all sales are returned to the community to promote and empower women, especially around women's health and gender equality, and help keep rural West African children in school by providing basic school supplies.

Lovinah Natural Skincare has been mentioned in Organic Spa Magazine, Newsweek, the ZOE Report and the New Beauty Report for its kale skincare products. Joy notes her company was one of the first to launch kale skincare products, to enthusiastic reviews. "Our Kale and Spirulina Mask is like food for the skin because we want our customers to feed their skin with healthy products. Our motto is not to put anything on your face that you wouldn't put in your mouth," she says.

Lovinah products are carried by high-end boutiques and spas around the globe, as well as at wellness and holistic health centers. Lovinah also participates in select spa shows, women's events and trade expos.
