

Cathy Larson of Double Blessing Healing and Growth to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

COCOA BEACH, FLORIDA, USA, September 24, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- After 30 successful years in real estate, Cathy Larson experienced a career epiphany when she received a clear message from God.

“He said, ‘I want you to be a healer for the next 20 years,’” recalls Cathy. “I said, ‘Really?’ I’ve been in sales all my adult life but healing? I know nothing about healing!”

Shortly after this experience, Cathy spoke with a friend who worked with Dr. Bradley Nelson, creator of The Emotion Code.

“I read The Emotion Code from midnight to four in the morning,” recalls Cathy. “I couldn’t put it down. I said, ‘OK God.

You’re providing what I need.”

According to The Emotion Code, most adults carry around over 300 trapped emotions in our body. We call this emotional baggage. When you experience an emotion like fear or anger, it can implant itself in you like a little ball of energy. When this happens, the energy of these emotions becomes trapped.

When we heal someone it is a blessing to them and a blessing to us.

Our bodies have the capacity to heal themselves. However when there is block like trapped emotions our bodies do not function as they were designed to. You become sick, sleepless, stressed, angry, have loss of memory. This can contribute to diseases like cancer, autism and addiction.

Cathy says releasing these emotions is like rebooting your computer and getting a fresh start. Once you release those trapped emotions you’re removing the symptoms that cause the disease.

“You feel like a miracle worker. That’s how good it feels,” says Cathy, “Everyone I come in contact with, I have the pleasure of helping and it is immediate. My clients have been healed from years of pain and medication. Migraine headaches, knee pain, anxiety, depression, skin conditions: gone!”

With The Emotion Code, Cathy says you can live the life you deserve and make a difference to your family and friends. They deserve the best of you, and you deserve to be well from the inside out.

“I’m just so grateful that I’m involved in this because it allows me to help people make changes for themselves and their families,” says Cathy. “Like I said, I’m in it for 20 years, so it’s really important that I touch as many people as I can and get the word out. You can’t put a price on your good health, feeling wonderful and having a life again.

“To do this healing is a real blessing. That’s why I’ve named my practice 'Double Blessing Healing and Growth.' When we heal someone it is a blessing to them and a blessing to us.”
