

Kdan Mobile Hits 1 Million Cloud Members, Free Trial Giveaways for Limited Time

STATE COLLEGE, PENNSYLVANIA , USA, September 23, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kdan Mobile announced this week that its Kdan Cloud has reached a total of one million registered members this August. In celebration of its success, Kdan pronounced its All Access Pack, one of Kdan's extension service packs, is now available for a 90-day free trial as part of its new "Up into the Cloud" campaign for a limited time of two months. The launch of the Cloud series and the All Access Pack bolsters Kdan Mobile's goal of integrating the company's award winning software solutions with its cloud services.

The new Cloud App series features five of Kdan's leading applications: Animation Desk Cloud, PDF Markup Cloud, NoteLedge Cloud, Write-On Video Cloud and Pocket Scanner Cloud. This series, in conjunction with the All Access Pack, incorporates all the Cloud applications into a single subscription. The one-time payment of USD 9.99/month for a subscription to the All Access Pack gives subscribers access to all of the extended features in each Cloud application. The enhanced features are designed to significantly lessen the barriers for anyone that wants to create contents in the digital world, as users can enjoy the new level of seamlessness and effortlessly create content across different platforms and devices. The 90-day free trial covers the first batch of services, which include the file conversion services, an online storage space of 1 TB, and an increased accessibility to the documents, where the files can be saved, synced and shared safely over the Kdan Cloud. The subscription replaces the need of purchasing individual updated editions, and enables the company to serve users better by providing software and service updates regularly.

Kdan's CEO, Kenny Su, was recently invited to speak at the Rise Conference 2015 in Hong Kong, summarizing the effort of his company: “While we are marching towards our goal of becoming the true facilitator of digital content creation, we are also responding to the market needs by offering add-on services and tools that further the experience of customers”. Kdan aims to provide multifaceted and professional digital tools and services that bridge the gap between professionals and amateurs. This will help mitigate the level of difficulty for anyone to leverage their creativity. The upcoming “Up into the Cloud” campaign encourages interested parties and external stakeholders to experience Kdan Mobile’s latest technology through the exclusive 90-day free trial for the All Access Pack available for a limited time.
