Jeremy Hare, President and Managing Member of Apollo Search Partners LLC, will manage all recruiting and sales efforts. Focused primarily but not limited to the Philadelphia market, Apollo Search Partners LLC uses its extensive network and proprietary software to bring accounting, finance, HR, banking, professional services, and administrative professionals together with companies across the country. Prior to forming Apollo Search Partners, Jeremy Hare was the Managing Director of a National Staffing Company Ascendo Resources LLC, running the Philadelphia Market. In addition to his experience working in external recruitment, Jeremy has served as a Senior Vice President for Wachovia Bank, now

Wells Fargo, and as a Managing Director for Oppenheimer and Company. Jeremy began his career as a bond trader and salesman for Wheat First Butcher and Singer working his way up to one of the top producers in the company.

Jeremy earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Communications from The University of Hartford. Born and raised in the New York area, Jeremy currently resides in Philadelphia, which he has called home for the past 25 years. He enjoys staying active and following the Phillies, Eagles, and 76ers. His favorite pastime is to spend time with his two children and family.

Apollo Search Partners LLC will focus on placing temporary and permanent candidates throughout several specialized industries. The company's new offices were specifically designed to fit its unique culture and are strategically located within the Center City Business District of Philadelphia as well as the South Jersey Market, home to some of the city's largest companies. Apollo Search Partners LLC is actively growing and is expanding its staff hiring more sales associates with experience within its targeted industries.

"The Greater Philadelphia's strong business climate makes it one of most attractive places for both job seekers and major corporations, so we're excited to bring our unique approach to recruiting and staffing to the Philadelphia Market, which will reflect our corporate identity," said Jeremy Hare, President of Apollo Search Partners LLC. "Since we began our operations here, we have leveraged our strong industry knowledge to make many great connections for our clients while ensuring a seamless hiring process."
