

Long Island Leadership Coach Jeffrey M. Bloom, EJD Coauthors Bestselling Book

MONTCLAIR, NJ, UNITED STATES, October 5, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "Business Leadership Blueprints" became a bestseller on Amazon in 2 categories. The book features Jeffrey M. Bloom, EJD and 4 other business leaders, whose unique stories and paths to leadership success provide a blueprint for anyone seeking to become a leader in their field.

Leadership is a true calling. A debate exists about whether great leaders are born or great leaders can be developed; the profiles in this book support both sides of the debate. Leadership can be hard to define, as it means different things to different people, yet there is no doubt when people meet a leader, they recognize them right away.

For the entrepreneur, business owner or employee trying to rise up the corporate ladder, there are valuable lessons contained within "Business Leadership

Bestselling Author Jeffrey M. Bloom, EJD

Blueprints". Using an interview format, the book profiles 5 leaders from different industries: Jeffrey M. Bloom, Blane Friest, Todd Herschberg, Laura J. Lief, and Jane Tabachnick.

The book follows the divergent paths these leaders took to achieve their leadership roles, and readers will be able to use some of the examples as a blueprint to apply to their own leadership development. Jeffrey M. Bloom's path to leadership has been advancing over a number of years. A graduate of Concord Law School, Jeff has over 13 years experience as a litigation paralegal and conflict resolution specialist. He completed his master's degree in Negotiation and Dispute Resolution from Creighton University and is a member of the New York State Council on Divorce Mediation as well as the Academy of Professional Mediators.
