

Sharon Doerr of Energy is My Medicine to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

LONGVIEW, WASHINGTON, USA, October 7, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Longview, WA – In western medicine, incurable simply means incurable by surgery or pills. Energy medicine is the medicine of the future. Releasing the energy of trapped emotional vibrations can relieve both physical and emotional pain. If you or someone dear to you suffers from chronic symptoms of physical or emotional pain, please let them know there are choices that involve nothing other than energy.

Sharon Doerr is an energy healer who specializes in releasing the trapped emotional vibrations that cause our pain and dysfunction. Sharon offers her clients freedom from pain and emotional issues without the need for surgery, pills or even psychoanalysis.

“The mind, body, and spirit are connected. Each one affects the health and function of the other,” says Sharon. “When I realized the power of energy healing, my prayer became, ‘How do I share this?’”

Sharon works primarily with an energy healing modality known as the Emotion Code and Body Code, developed by Dr. Bradley Nelson. Over his years of Chiropractic practice, Dr. Nelson determined that the root cause of 90 percent of all disease is trapped emotional vibrations within our physical body. With the Emotion Code and Body Code we can simply ask our body what the cause of our physical or emotional pain is and how to release that pain.

The mind, body, and spirit are connected. Each one affects the health and function of the other.

“Watching Dr. Bradley Nelson demonstrate how to release physical and emotional pain hooked me immediately,” recalls Sharon. “It meshed and worked together so perfectly with all I had known and done in the past, that I just knew I had to do whatever it took to become certified with his organization.”

Sharon says the real wonder of energy medicine is that it has no limits; balancing energetic vibrations can be done across the world. Sharon is particularly gifted at proxy healing, working with people over long distances.

“We have become so programmed to believe that the only solution to health and wellness is pills or surgery or psychoanalysis,” says Sharon. “They have to experience it, but once they do, they will share it. It will be the story that leads others to wellness.”

CUTV News Radio will feature Sharon Doerr in an interview with Jim Masters on October 9th at 2pm EST.
