Communication - it's the heart of every business in the country, and Digital IP offers the technology to make it happen for small and large businesses alike.

Better Technology

Businesses today are looking for solutions that are perfect to meet their needs, and Digital IP has just that. With a focus on quality and reliability and a reliance on the best equipment available today, Digital IP helps companies maximize efficiency every step of the way.

"Digital systems remain the office mainstay in smaller enterprises, and we're working to make it possible for even the smallest companies to get the features once reserved for major corporations with big budgets. Small enterprises need to be as efficient or even more efficient than their larger counterparts, they need to do more for less," said Richard D. Slaughter, President, Digital IP Services.

The features of the systems they offer are enormous. Connection of multiple systems to multiple locations, direct inward dialing, phone and PC integration, and mobile connections are all part of the package. The system can even be fully integrated with applications like Salesforce for greater flexibility.

Full Service, Cost-Effective Choices

As important as good communication systems are within today's business world, if it doesn't fit within the bottom line, it's just not going to work, and that's where Digital IP shines the brightest. They offer an incredible system at a great price. We will be as competitive on apples to apples comparisons as the next vendor but we have an almost 40 year track record.

"Our goal is always to offer communications equipment that could give you a boost in employee productivity and business-to-customer interaction, but we want to do it at a price point that works for you, so our packages are as focused on prices as they are on services," said Richard Slaughter.
