

The Days of Gifts – Online multi-day gifting service announced in time for December holidays

With The Days of Gifts, recipients celebrate Christmas by opening one gift per day for 12 days, as in "The 12 Days of Christmas."

CUYAHOGA FALLS, OH, USA, October 8, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Launched today, The Days of Gifts is a new multi-day gifting service that allows customers to celebrate holidays and special occasions by opening one gift per day for multiple days, similar to the classic song "The 12 Days of Christmas."

For the December holiday kick-off offering, customers order one gift package for their intended recipients and select a start day. For those who celebrate Christmas, for instance, on December 14 (or "the first day of Christmas"), the recipients begin opening one gift per day, until December 25. Each gift package is tailored to either a male or female, along with other customizable options, and every gift is individually wrapped or boxed, tied with a ribbon, and labeled for each day.

"Surprise someone on your list with something different this holiday season," says Co-Founder Andi Lucas. "And we're doing all the work for you—choose the gender, answer a few questions, and you're done! Your recipient receives a package of 12 beautifully wrapped gifts, and you didn't need to leave the house." Ideal recipients might include spouses, friends, girlfriends/boyfriends, Secret Santa giftees, or anyone deserving of a fun surprise.

Orders placed by November 1 will arrive in time for the December 14 start date. Later order dates also are available. Each tailored The Days of Gifts package will contain 12 individually wrapped or boxed quality presents—tied with a ribbon and labeled by day with a card explaining how The Days of
