

Agenda released for the 7th annual congress on RNA Therapeutics

Sarepta Therapeutics and MiNA Therapeutics confirmed to chair the new show for 2016

LONDON, ENGLAND, UNITED KINGDOM, October 8, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bringing new concepts of functionalised nanoparticles for targeted delivery, SMi Group are thrilled to announce that the 7th annual RNA Therapeutics conference will return to London on 15th and 16th February in 2016.

The new agenda will feature a mix of case study-led presentations, panel debates, interactive workshops and keynote addresses tailored for an audience of professionals and research scientists looking to develop and commercialise novel RNA therapeutics and delivery systems.

With a focus on messenger RNA-based Therapeutics and anti-sense oligonucleotide-based drugs, the programme will hone in on major key developments and tackle the challenge of transporting RNA to target sites outside the liver.
