

Stop Trying To Press or Pop Pimples and Blackheads with your Finger Nails

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, October 10, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Los Angeles, CA -- This week Aotearoa Beauty is reminding consumers not to use fingers to press or pop pimples and blackheads. Doing so can cause scarring, inflammation, and infection.

Earlier this year Aotearoa Beauty came the rescue of those who suffer with blemishes with the new Aotearoa Blackhead and Blemish Remover Kit. It contains five stainless steel pimple and blackhead removal tools similar to the ones physicians use.

Don't use your finger nails to POP Pimples

"It's very important for people to refrain from squeezing and popping pimples and blemishes. Bacteria on your fingers can get into your skin. Our Blemish Remover Kit is safe. You won't find a better and safer solution for perfect skin," said Neil Mackenzie of Aotearoa Beauty.

Consumers agreed in large numbers when the Blemish Remover Kit was made available on Amazon.com. Sales exploded as people were finally able to get a medical style kit for properly removing pimples and blackheads.

The surgical quality tools can easily be sanitized using rubbing alcohol. This provides a much cleaner and safer means of clearing blemishes.

Users first cleanse blemish areas using warm water and antibacterial soap. They can sanitize the Blemish Remover instruments by either dipping in rubbing alcohol or wiping them down with an alcohol-soaked cotton ball.

"Have you ever noticed when you squeeze a pimple it just looks bigger and more obvious? The Blemish Remover Kit provides a much safer way to effectively get rid of blemishes," Neil said.

The surgical grade tools are made of high quality stainless steel so they will never rust. Each tool is double ended. They are similar to the tools found in dermatology clinics in the United States.

The tools come packed in a free leather case that holds them securely and keeps them from contamination. Aotearoa Beauty offers a money back guarantee. "We are keeping the introductory price very low so more people can enjoy the safe way to eliminate blemishes," Neil said.
